

State	Program Description	Secondary Containment	Inspection	Record-keeping	Permitting/ Registration	Incorporates API 650 & 653	Reference
Delaware	Jeffrey Davis Aboveground Storage Tank Act and subsequent regulations apply to tanks converted from petroleum service after 1992, regardless of their current contents	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Delaware Administrative Code Title 7 Regulations Governing Aboveground Storage Tanks
Florida	Department of Environmental Protection regulates Aboveground Storage Tank Systems containing pollutants, including substances that release ammonia when discharged	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Florida Administrative Code 62-762
Illinois	Department of Agriculture regulates all agricultural facilities storing commercial bulk fertilizer	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	8 Illinois Administrative Code (IAC) Chapter I Part 255
Indiana	Indiana State Chemist enforces Indiana Commercial Fertilizer Rules for facilities storing fluid bulk fertilizer in quantities greater than 55 gallons	Yes	No	No	Yes	No	355 Indiana Administrative Code (IAC) 2
Iowa	Agriculture and Land Stewardship Department regulates Containment of Pesticides, Fertilizers, and Soil Conditioners, including storage of fertilizer in volumes greater than 5,000 gallons	Yes	No	No	No	No	Iowa Administrative Code (IAC) 21-44(206)
Kansas	Department of Agriculture regulates bulk storage of commercial fertilizers in amounts more than 2,000 gallons	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	650 only	Kansas Administrative Regulations (KAR) 4-4-900
Kentucky	Department of Agriculture Division of Pesticide Regulation regulates storage and handling of bulk fertilizer in amounts greater than 5,000 gallons at commercial facilities	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	No	302 Kentucky Administrative Rules (KAR) 31:040

State	Program Description	Secondary Containment	Inspection	Record-keeping	Permitting/ Registration	Incorporates API 650 & 653	Reference
Massachusetts	Office of the State Fire Marshal enforces regulations requiring permitting, recordkeeping, and inspection of all aboveground storage tanks over 10,000 gallons capacity	Discretion of fire dept.	Yes	Yes	Yes	Or equal	502 Code of Massachusetts Regulations (CMR) 5.00
Michigan	Department of Agriculture regulates on-farm bulk storage of fertilizer of more than 2,500 gallons in one container or more than 7,500 gallons aggregate	Yes	Yes	No	No	No	Michigan Administrative Code R 285.642
Minnesota	Minnesota Pollution Control Agency regulates aboveground storage tanks of greater than 1,100 gallons containing any liquid substance which may cause pollution to waters of the state; incorporates by reference API 653	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Minnesota Administrative Rules Chapter 7151
Nebraska	Department of Environmental Quality implements Rules And Regulations Pertaining To Agricultural Chemical Containment for bulk fertilizer storage	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No	Nebraska Administrative Code Title 198
Ohio	Department of Agriculture regulates all farm fertilizer tanks of 5,000 gallons or more aggregate capacity	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	653 only	Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) 901:5-2
Oklahoma	Oklahoma Fertilizer Act and Rules implemented by Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Food, and Forestry regulate facilities storing liquid bulk fertilizer in quantities greater than 55 gallons	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	No	Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 35:45-1-10
South Dakota	Department of Agriculture enforces Bulk Commercial Fertilizer Storage Rules for facilities capable of storing more than 300 gallons	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	South Dakota Administrative Rules Chapter 12:44:05
Washington	Department of Agriculture regulates Fertilizer Bulk Storage and Operational Area Containment for greater than 500 gallons	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No	Chapter 16-201 Washington Administrative Code (WAC)

State	Program Description	Secondary Containment	Inspection	Record-keeping	Permitting/ Registration	Incorporates API 650 & 653	Reference
West Virginia	Department of Agriculture regulates facilities storing over 5,000 gallons of liquid fertilizer for more than 30 days per year	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	61 WV Code of State Rules (CSR) 6B
Wisconsin	Department of Agriculture, Trade, and Consumer Protection regulates fertilizer bulk storage in quantities greater than 55 gallons	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	Agriculture, Trade, & Consumer Protection (ATCP) Chapter 33